SYNOPSIS OF THE COURSE

The Fellowship Assessment Course (FAC) consists of a two-full day programme (21 August and 22 August 2009) which covers Modules 2, 3, 4 & 5 with topics such as: institution arbitration and ad-hoc arbitration, arbitration agreement, appointment of arbitrator, the UNCITRAL model law, roles of tribunal and parties, procedures for arbitration, drafting of directions, hearing, procedures for arbitration and drafting of Award.

Non-legally trained candidates are required to undertake Module 1 which covers topics related to Laws of Contract, Tort and Evidence.

AWARD WRITING EXAMINATION

The Award Writing examination to be scheduled for 24 August 2009 is open to all candidates. However, to complete the Fellowship Assessment Course successfully, candidates are required to achieve 100% attendance and pass assessments of Modules 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. Lawyers are exempted from completing Module 1. This is an Open Book Examination and candidates may bring into the examination hall any books or documents deemed relevant.

Successful completion of the course modules and the Award Writing Examination will be deemed to be equivalent of passing the corresponding requirements for Fellowship of SI Arb provided that candidates are aged at least 35 years old at the time of application.

Subject to other admission criteria, successful completion of the Award Writing Examination will qualify members of the Law Society of Singapore to be admitted to the Panel of Arbitrators of the Law Society Arbitration Scheme.

COURSE DIRECTOR

Assoc Prof Neale R Gregson, qualified as a lawyer in 1985 in the City of London and moved to Singapore in 1991. He holds Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Law from the Universities of Wales and London, respectively, and is a University Prizewinner. Neale qualified as a Chartered Arbitrator in 2001 and is a Fellow and Panel Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (as well as being a Panel Member of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration and the Pacific International Arbitration Center in Vietnam). Having worked for many years as a Partner in international legal practice (during which time he served as head of a thriving litigation and arbitration department in a major offshore firm in Singapore, successfully represented various MNCs as Counsel in multi-million arbitrations, and became recognized as one of the Asia-Pacific region's leading lawyers in the field of international dispute resolution), Neale joined The Arbitration Chambers, Singapore in July 2004 as a full-time professional arbitrator and mediator. He has conducted more than 40 arbitrations either as sole arbitrator or as a member of the arbitral tribunal, and has been appointed chairman or presiding arbitrator on several occasions. Neale has served as an adjunct Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore since 2003 where he teaches arbitration and other international law subjects. In addition, he leads both NUS's Graduate Certificate in International Arbitration (GCIA) and SIArb's Fellowship Assessment Course (FAC) as Course Director.
