Lifting the Cover Off Discounted Cash Flow in Disputes: How To Support Your Party's Submissions and Review The Other Side's
Orchid Ballroom, 6 Eu Tong Sen Street, #04-85, The Central (Clarke Quay), Singapore 059817
Tuesday, 11 June 2019, 5.30pm – 7pm

About this Seminar:

The use of Discounted Cash Flow ("DCF") calculations is becoming commonplace in damages assessments, where they are used to determine the present value of expected future net cash flows, allowing for the time value of money and risks attributable to those cash flows.

Two practicing experts will discuss how to prepare a robust DCF calculation, in particular the information and facts that need to be collated to ensure that the expert can provide an appropriately supported opinion. The experts will also discuss what to look for in an opposing party's submissions and calculations, in order to identify potential deficiencies and areas to focus on in your response.

Join us for free flow of wines, beers, soft drinks and food after the seminar!

Seminar Programme:

Table with 2 columns: Time and Activity. Rows include: 5.00-5.30pm Registrations and Standing Buffet Reception; 5.30-5.45pm Opening Remarks by Chairperson; 5.45-7.00pm Lifting the cover off the Discounted Cash Flow in disputes, how to support your party's submissions and review the other side's; 7.00-7.15pm Q&A Session; 7.15-8.15pm Networking Drinks.

About the Speakers:

Jonathan Ellis is a Director in the Singapore office of Accuracy, which he co-leads. He specialises in quantification of lost profits and valuations, in particular in dispute contexts, for litigation, arbitration and expert determination purposes, across a variety of sectors and geographies, including energy and natural resources.

Jonathan is a Physics graduate from Imperial College London and has a Master's in Accounting and Management Science, with distinction, from the University of Southampton. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW) and a member of Association of International Petroleum Negotiators (AIPN).

Iain Potter is a Chartered Accountant and Director in MDD's Singapore office specialising in litigation support and expert witness assignments, in particular those involving business valuations or complex loss of profits claims and has been instructed as an expert in court and arbitral proceedings in a number of jurisdictions including the UK, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Australia, India and the BVI.

Iain holds undergraduate degrees in Mathematics and Law, a Master's degree in Maritime Law from the University of London and is a current PhD student with the University of Leicester where his research focuses on adjustments for the time value of money and risk in awards of damages.

About the Chairperson:

Jelita Pandjaitan leads the Southeast Asia disputes practice of Linklaters conducting and advising clients on significant and complex cross-border commercial disputes through arbitration, courts and mediation. Jelita assists corporate and financial institution clients throughout the region and in collateral proceedings in London and New York.

Jelita also has extensive experience in local and foreign regulatory and internal investigations, as well as advising on the contentious aspects of cross-border transactions, including conducting due diligence on bribery and corruption risks. She has been endorsed as a Recommended Lawyer for Financial Services Regulatory by Legal 500 Asia Pacific, 2019 where she is noted for her strong focus on cross-border disputes and investigations for major international banks and corporations.
